THIS AGREEMENT is between Gold Standard Automotive Network, ("GSAN") a Utah corporation, and _____, a _____ corporation with their principal offices located at _____ (individually and collectively with their affiliated entities, ("Dealer", "You", "Your").

WHEREAS, the Dealer desires to perform as well as follow the requirements of the Program; and in Consideration of the recitals, promises and mutual covenants as outlined for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, GSAN and the Dealer desires to enter this Agreement. The Dealer wishes to offer one or more of GSAN's Products to its motor vehicle Purchasers ("Purchasers") and GSAN desires to appoint the Dealer as a sales representative for such Products, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. As used herein, "Product" means any of the Maintenance or Maintenance / Vehicle Service Contract, GAP, or other programs offered by GSAN to a Dealer.

- GSAN hereby authorizes You to offer and sell GSAN Products to Your Purchasers within the States were filed and approved. You agree each Product shall be sold only on an eligible vehicle as defined within the GSAN Product(s) Contract in accordance with GSAN rules, regulations, terms and pricing in effect at the time of sale. The Dealer agrees to report all sales and make payment on sold Products by the 15th of the following month. The Dealer agrees that prior to the sale of any vehicle being sold with a GSAN Product, that the vehicle has been inspected and that the Dealer has repaired or fixed any defects found or made repairs required and certifies that the vehicle is in good working mechanical condition, unless otherwise specified in this agreement.
- You have no right to use the logo or trademarks of either the insurer or GSAN under this agreement without specific permission to do in writing. You may use approved GSAN brochures.
- GSAN reserves the right to change Product coverage, rules, regulations, terms and pricing. You will be notified of these changes and shall promptly make the changes as required. The insurer may also make changes and the Dealer will be notified should such changes occur. GSAN shall have no liability and the Dealer will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless GSAN with respect to any Product offered by the Dealer on a form, other than that provided to the Dealer by GSAN, or on a form no longer in use, or using a form that has been issued but does not meet the terms and conditions on the form, as outlined herein. You shall not change, modify, alter or waive any terms on the Product agreement and have no authority to modify or waive any terms within the GSAN Product or make representations on coverage or benefits provided. Nor, may You modify or change the contractual obligations of the insurance carrier. Should such change occur, or representations made result in a loss that is otherwise not covered, it will be the Dealers obligation to make repairs or pay for loss incurred, including any legal fees or court costs.
- You shall comply with all applicable laws relating to all aspects of the Agreement and the Products offered pursuant hereto, including, but not limited to: (1) the marketing and sale of Products; (2) mandated timeframes for delivery of Product forms; (3) making Product terms and conditions available to consumers prior to purchase; and (4) timely refunding of the purchase price in the event of a proper cancellation by a Purchaser.
- You shall comply with all lawful instructions and rules issued by GSAN relating to the Agreement or the Products offered pursuant hereto, including all instructions relating to licensing, registration or other authorization required of a governmental authority for Dealer to market and sell the Products.

6. You shall remit to GSAN all funds due to the GSAN on each sale within fifteen days (15) days following the end of the month in which the Product was sold. Any additional monies that are otherwise owed by You shall be due immediately upon the Dealer's receipt of a billing for such from GSAN. Should a Dealer fail to remit funds within the required time frame, they may become liable for the payment of any or all claims, including legal fees, court costs or judgments rendered. It is understood that the insurer has the right but may not elect to collect from the dealer any outstanding funds owed to GSAN. A Dealer that is not current with the payments on sales made as detailed herein, will lose eligibility for the "no charge back" benefit should payments not be kept current as required. Any Dealer which has more than 100% or greater loss ratio or greater shall not be eligible for the "no charge back" program. Loss ratio is defined by taking total paid on your written earned fees compared to claims paid during the same period.
7. (a) In the event of cancellation of an approved service contract by the purchaser after One Hundred Twenty (120) days from its effective date, the amount of the refund by Administrator will be the full pro rata amount due to the purchaser, subject to 1 (d & e) below.
All sold Contracts must be paid in full within Forty-Five (45) days from the contract inception date.
A refund due to a cancellation of an approved service contract within One Hundred Twenty (120) days of its effective date will be shared by both the Dealer and Administrator. Each party will pay their appropriate pro rata share of the refund. The Dealer's pro rata share is based on the difference between the retail selling price and the Dealer net cost due to the Administrator including surcharge.
(b) All approved service contracts written on or after the effective date of this Addendum shall be accounted for as of June 1, 2021.
(c) The Administrator's responsibility to the Dealer will not exceed the pro rata share of the refund based on the Dealer's service contract profit and where applicable may NOT exceed the approved state filed rates.

8. This Agreement can be modified or terminated by the Administrator at any time. A Dealer may also terminate this agreement. Termination of this Addendum will not be grounds for termination of the Administrator agreement. If this Agreement is terminated, all contracts written while this Addendum is in force will be subject to and accounted for pursuant to the terms herein.
9. Except as herein specified, all other terms and conditions of the Administrator Agreement, and any Addendum or amendment thereto, remain unchanged.
10. Any contract financed through Paylink, does not qualify for the No Charge Back program. Each party will pay their appropriate pro rata share of the refund. The Dealer agrees not to make a claim for repairs that were known prior to the time of sale, or on parts that were not damaged, or excluded in the Product agreement.
13. You shall remain responsible for performing the work in a reasonable, workman like manner and shall warrant the repairs for 12 months. GSAN is not responsible for work done in an unacceptable manner.
14. You are required to fully inform all Purchasers about the Program terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions as outlined within the Product terms.
15. GSAN may change the rate to You; GSAN will communicate any such change to You. Any change so made would take place 30 days after notice. If the Dealer fails to properly remit funds to GSAN as required, then the Dealer shall be liable for all costs and expenses of GSAN resulting from the Dealer's failure to remit such funds. The Dealer agrees that failure of the Dealer to properly remit funds for any Contract issued by it shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.
16. You shall be responsible for any taxes imposed by law on You or transaction as a result of the sale of all or any part of the Program.
17. You further agree that all funds received by You on the sale of GSAN Products shall be held in a fiduciary capacity and not intermingled with personal or other funds or used for personal or any other purpose whatsoever.
18. If any fees or any other amounts due to GSAN, or its agents or assigns, from the Dealer remain unpaid after thirty (30) days shall be deducted from any fees or other any amounts otherwise due to the Dealer. GSAN also reserves the right to offset

Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement, immediately cease offering the Products and coordinate with GSAN to resolve any requests from or disputes with Purchasers, including but not limited to refunds/cancellations. Should this Agreement terminate for any reason, the Dealer agrees to immediately cease offering the Products and work with GSAN to resolve any requests from disputes with Purchasers, including refunds/cancellations.
20. You agree to hold the GSAN, their respective agents, employees, successors harmless from any and all claims, actions, demands or liabilities (including but not limited to attorney's fees and other legal costs) of any type arising out of or resulting from (i) any act or failure to act by You (including but not limited to its agents and employees) which causes harm or damage to any person or property, (ii) any act related to the conduct of You business over which GSAN has no control (iii) any other claim arising out of or related to a Contract except to the extent that such claim relates to GSAN's failure to perform its obligations hereunder, or (iv) the Your failure to comply with any and all applicable laws, rules, regulations and ordinances respecting the sales of Contracts. Should You receive notice of a lawsuit, hearing, investigation, issuance of a cease-and-desist order or any other complaint related to Products sold pursuant to this Agreement, You shall notify GSAN within 2 (two) business days.

26. GSAN Agrees:
  - a. To allow You to charge a reasonable mark-up above the Company's charged costs of the Contracts (the "Dealer Mark-up").
  - b. To arrange for the purchase of insurance covering the Company's obligation under any Program unless otherwise stated in the Contracts sold to Purchasers.
  - c.   - e.   - f. To hold You harmless from an expense (including attorney's fees), judgment, fine, and amount paid in settlement arising out of any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal administrative or investigative, in connection with the Product issued pursuant to this Agreement, which result from gross negligence, fraudulent or illegal acts on the part of the Company.
  - g. To inform You about the policies, procedures, risk management and marketing guidelines of the contractual liability insurer of the Company.

assistance to the Customer.

- i. This Agreement shall become effective as of the date specified in the Information Page. This Agreement may be terminated by either party by giving thirty (30) days' advance written notice to the other party. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof shall be settled by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules. Such arbitration shall be conducted before a three-person arbitration panel, and each arbitrator shall have experience in matters of property and casualty insurance or reinsurance. One arbitrator shall be chosen by Dealer, one by GSAN, and a third arbitrator, an umpire, shall be chosen by the appointed arbitrators. In the event that the arbitrators are not able to agree on the choice of the umpire, the appointment shall be left to the President of the American Arbitration Association, or its successor. Venue for such arbitration shall be decided by the parties. If the parties cannot agree to where the arbitration will be conducted, then the arbitration panel will decide. The arbitration panel's award shall be in writing and shall set forth the findings and conclusions upon which it based the award. The prevailing party in any such arbitration shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the arbitration, as such is determined by the arbitration panel.
  28. You shall at all times be considered an independent contractor, and nothing in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to create an employment, joint venture, or partnership relationship between GSAN and Dealer or between GSAN and any of Dealer's employees, agents, and sub-contractors.
  29. The failure by either party to exercise or enforce any of its rights or remedies under this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment to any extent of such party's right to assert or rely upon any such provision, right, or remedy.
  30. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective lawful successors and assigns of the parties. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto or their respective lawful successors and assigns any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.
  31. Neither this Agreement, nor any of the authority, rights, duties, obligations, liabilities afforded or created by this Agreement may be assigned or delegated by Dealer to any other person without a prior written consent of GSAN.
  32. This written Agreement and the exhibits hereto constitute the entire agreement.
  33. This Agreement and the Information Page may not be amended or modified except by written agreement signed by both of the parties hereto. This provision does not apply to the Program Terms which may be amended by GSAN, as provided in this Agreement.
  34. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity’s name as shown on the entity’s tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner’s name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner’s name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity’s name on line 2, “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

IF the entity/person on line 1 is a(n) . . .	THEN check the box for . . .

• Partnership	Partnership

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions.

You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
