

CALIFORNIA FINANCIAL PRIVACY ACT POLICY

Your privacy is important to Gold Standard Automotive Network, Inc. (“GSAN,” “we,” “us,” or “our”), and we have set forth the details about our privacy rights pursuant to the California Financial Information Privacy Act (the “Act”).

INFORMATION WE COLLECT FROM PURCHASERS OF OUR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Concerning purchasers of our products or services, we do not sell your personal information. We may collect the following information about you: your name, address, phone number, email, VIN, and details about your vehicle (including date of purchase, price, and mileage), contracting information with us (including a copy of the contract), lienholder and loan information, and the dealership where the vehicle was purchased. We will keep this information on our system for as long as required by applicable law and may keep the information for an extended period of time. While you have the right to restrict the sharing of personal information with our affiliates (companies we own or control) and outside companies that we do business with, we do not share or sell your information to affiliates or outside companies except as noted below. Nothing in this form prohibits sharing information necessary for us to follow the law, as permitted by law, or to give you the best service in your business relationship with us.

YOUR CHOICES and RIGHTS

We do not sell your personal information to affiliates or to outside entities. Further, we do not share your information with affiliates or with outside entities except when the information is needed to complete the business transaction for which your personal information was collected or if federal law requires it, for example, including, but not limited to, if you submit a claim for repairs, if an inspection is required or if our insurer requires the information.

You can make a privacy choice as set forth below (at no cost by us) seeking to have us delete your business record or disclose to you what information we have concerning you, and we do not discriminate in any way by exercising your rights under the Act. As explained above and in the Act, please note that some information cannot be deleted pursuant to the Act and federal law. To exercise your privacy choice, do one of the following:
